

How will you take the plunge this

Christmas?

Alice gasps as the cold water closes over her face and bites into her head. Always the worst bit, putting her face in the water! Then she's off - arms slicing the waves, she freestyles across the bay.

Billie gets in gradually, in and out, squawking and splashing, she takes at least five minutes to immerse.

Noel knows his facts - water temp, air temp, tide times, wind direction he rhymes it all off - words ricochet off the harbour wall as he steps gingerly down the slipway in his woolly beanie.

Newcastle Open Water swimmers. They rarely miss a day. Another community enjoying the sea. They will emerge pink cheeked and clear headed. Different reasons different styles and reach for their...

Dryrobe because nothing else will do.
The Original Dryrobe will dry and insulate you in seconds.

The Original Dryrobe with:

Synthetic wool lining

- Dries and insulates you in seconds
- Wicks cold water away and warms your core

Tough seamless fabric

- Pulls on in an instant

Wind and waterproof outer

- Protects you from the elements

Front zipper

- Lets you change easily

Deep pockets

- warm your hands

Really cosy I don't have to rush home to warm up now.

M Bennet (Windermere)

Best buy ever, fab for changing.

C Doran (Kilkeel)

Snug I wear it to my son's matches in winter.

J Barbour (Largs)

The Perfect
Christmas gift

Reserve one for your CHRISTMAS DAY DIP while stocks last

Save 10% when you order before 20 December!

Visit www.dryrobes.com to choose your size and colour.